Experience

Sociology Teacher. Extensive professional experience in working context. Skilled in the areas of web design and graphic interfaces, team management, business management and trainer. Academic background: Degree in Social Sciences and Master in Community Intervention. Fluent in Portuguese and English, handles Spanish and has rudiments of German and French.

- Teaches Sociology at EPROFCOR;
- Done extensive work as graphic and multimedia designer; I was project manager for I&D teams working on internet image security (back in the early 00s), interactive kiosks (in 08) at Imediata and UX/UI for the medical industry (in the 10s) at B-Simple;
- Webmaster for a number of websites, such as: esepf.pt (Paula Frassinetti Higher School of Education), educa-dor.org, irmasdoroteias.pt, jcnoronha.pt, maquinamundi.com, aafariagomes.pt and monicaliveira.net, mastering tools like Dreamweaver, WordPress, Photoshop and InDesign, among others; also familiarized with SEO tools;
- As a consultant, I've been working since 2000 as a macOS specialist, with all the implications in terms of client support, assisted buy and SOHO / mobile integration, and recently began a collaboration with clnicadosono.com.pt and clinicaorl.com.pt to boost traffic and customers;
- General manager of a facility services company from 12 to 18. As owner and manager, my functions were broad, ranging from HR (recruiting, training, work schedule, finance and contractual requirements) to logistics, from commercial and marketing activities to client support;
- Experienced teacher (working with Adecco – Portugal), able to convey knowledge and captivate student's interest; having tutored over 1.000 hours of classes in subjects like: advanced Office, network management for SOHO users, digital photography (capturing, editing and cataloguing), professional use of mobile devices, digital cephalometries (QuickCeph and Dolphin Imaging); I've also designed and taught short-term classes in public addressing, and the sociological views in HR management; I'm CCP certified: EDF 16025/2000 DN;

- Strong communication skills, able to speak fluently in Portuguese and English, having taught myself to speak German and French; I'm cooperative by nature and methodical;
- The graduation in Social Sciences and Master in Community Intervention comes out of my passion for society and a search of a better understanding of its motivations and the problems that still afflict them.
